Message from Pastor Carol...

*"Do your little bit of good where you are;
it's those little bits of good put together that overwhelm the world." ~ Desmond Tutu*

February may be the shortest month of the year, but it rarely feels that way. In just a few weeks, we move from Groundhog Day guesses about spring, to cheering (or groaning!) over the Super Bowl, to watching athletes from around the world gather for the Winter Olympics. We mark Presidents' Day, celebrate Lunar New Year, honor Black History Month, and notice the first subtle signs of light returning, whether in the stirrings of Imbolc, the budding trees of Tu BiShvat, or the lengthening days themselves. All of this reminds us that February is really about connections across cultures and traditions, and the values that help communities thrive.

Valentine's Day fills February with hearts and cards, but love shows up in many other ways too — friendship, family, neighborliness, and the care we show ourselves and one another. It's there in the simple ways neighbors look out for each other — a kind word, a helping hand, a note of encouragement, a quick check-in. As we move toward Ash Wednesday and the reflective season of Lent, these everyday moments remind us how deeply connected we truly are.

Acts of kindness

That spirit comes into focus during Random Acts of Kindness Week, February 9 – 15. It gently nudges us to notice how small acts like holding a door, writing a thank-you note, shoveling a neighbor's walk, or offering patience can make a real difference. None of it has to be grand. Often, it's the simplest kindness that reminds us we belong to one another.

For many, February also invites deeper reflection. Mardi Gras gives way to Ash Wednesday and the Christian season of Lent, a time of self-examination and renewed compassion. Ramadan begins the same day for our Muslim neighbors, calling people to prayer, fasting, generosity, and community. Black History Month invites us to remember and learn from the stories that have shaped our shared American experience. Together, these observances point us toward lives rooted in justice, generosity, and care.

So perhaps February's invitation to us is this...
To let love become action.

To make kindness a daily practice.

To look out for one another in ways both visible and quiet.

To tend not only our own hearts, but the heart of our community.

This month, may we all find ways, large or small, to spread warmth in the cold, encouragement in uncertain times, and hope as we wait for spring. ~ With gratitude for this community we share and . . . JOY always,

Carol

From Your Stewardship Committee:

Love Your Neighbor

Jesus said, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and first commandment. And a second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets." ~ Matthew 22:37-40

What a shame that February, the one month of the year with keen focus on love, is also the shortest. We sure could use a lot more love in our world, especially for our neighbor.

The last 12 months have been particularly hard. Currently in very short supply, more love for neighbor would go a long way in helping us to solve our problems. Love for neighbor is integral to not only good discipleship, but also good stewardship. The greater the "love for neighbor" factor in our lives, the better stewards we will be of every blessing God provides: creation, time, relationships, money, possessions, health... to name just a few. By cultivating love for neighbor we will also enjoy a happier life and promote a healthier and more civil society. The opposite is also true. Cultivating enmity for neighbor leaves us sour, selfish and cynical, while also making our nation angry and selfish.

LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR AS YOURSELF.

MATTHEW 22:39

This year make February "Love Your Neighbor" month in your personal devotions and your congregational life. Give the concept breathing room in your life. Keep it in your thoughts, sow it in our hearts, talk about it to your family and friends. Pray for God to teach you what it means to love our neighbor. Pray for God to give you the strength and will to live it. And watch as love heals and invigorates your life... and our world. ~ Copyright © 2021, Rev. Robert Blezard

From Your Energy Advocate

Happy February, Westhampton! In our second installment of Why Electrify?, we're focusing on what heat pumps are, and how they can help make upgrading your home heating system more cost effective. You may think of heat pumps only as those space-age looking things on the wall. In reality, the term heat pump is a general term for a mechanism that moves (pumps) heat from a cooler place to a warmer place. Refrigerators, dehumidifiers, and air conditioners are all a type of heat pump!

The cool thing about heat pumps is that they're one of the most efficient heating and cooling technologies available today (often 2 - 4 times more efficient than furnaces or boilers) because they move heat rather than create it. Paired with weatherization and insulation, they often use much less energy to heat or cool your space. Efficiency Maine has a great Residential Heating System Cost Calculator, which will help you compare the cost of heat pumps to your current system. You can access that calculator at this link: <https://www.efficiencymaine.com/at-home/heating-cost-comparison/>

While heat pumps can have higher upfront costs than traditional systems, incentives make a big difference. Mass Save rebates can substantially reduce installation costs, and the State of Massachusetts has recently introduced a reduced electricity rate during the heating season for those who have a heat pump in their home. If you're curious whether upgrading your heating system makes financial sense for your home, reach out to Westhampton's Energy Advocate, Hannah Davis, at 413-529-1400 x 781 or visit masssave.com/community-first/hamptons to explore options, incentives, and next steps.

Together, we're building a stronger, more caring community, one bowl at a time.

How it works: Order soup and have it delivered right to your home by HRHS students! Place your order by Monday, February 9 by contacting Julia Lennen at 413-537-9880 or jlennen@gmail.com for your delivery on Friday, February 13.

Jessie Krug Honored

at Boston Post Golden Cane Ceremony

On Saturday, January 10, the Westhampton Public Library was filled with warmth, laughter, and heartfelt emotion as the town gathered to celebrate a cherished tradition — the Boston Post Golden Cane Ceremony. Nearly 90 people attended to honor Jessie Krug, age 98, who was recognized as the oldest member of the Westhampton community.

Jessie was presented with the iconic Boston Post Golden Cane, a symbol of longevity and community history. Her name was formally added to the town's Golden Cane plaque, and she also received a Certificate of Recognition from the Commonwealth, presented on behalf of State Representative Lindsay Sabadosa. Family members who were unable to travel joined the celebration from afar via Zoom, making the event even more special.

The ceremony featured stories from Jessie's life, shared by friends and loved ones, that brought both laughter and tears to the room. The reflections painted a picture of a life well lived and deeply connected to family, friends, and community.

In accepting the honor, Jessie shared her gratitude and surprise, saying, "I grew up knowing about the Boston Post Cane, but I never thought I would be receiving it. I will cherish it. Thank you."

The afternoon was a touching reminder of the importance of honoring our elders and preserving the traditions that connect generations. The town of Westhampton was proud to celebrate Jessie Krug and her remarkable 98 years (and counting).
